ix) Module restrictions and pre-requisites
D. Application
i) Procedures	All NUS students have to be nominated by NUS before they can apply for a fee-waiver exchange at the host university. The application procedures and list of supporting documents needed by the host university can be found in the SharePoint. Please look for the SEP coordinator at your Dean’s Office for the link to the SharePoint.
ii) Deadlines	All NUS students must abide by the internal application deadline set by their home Faculty for exchange participation in the following academic year. After clearing the internal application and selection process, students have to take note of the application deadline set by the host university. Failure to submit a formal application to the host university by the stipulated deadline, may result in your exchange being forfeited even if you have been selected by NUS for the exchange.
E. Accommodation
i) University Accommodation	All exchange students are required to live on campus. Typically, the exchange students live in our self-catered apartment style housing which include: Riverside Apartments, Townhouse Apartments, and Woodstock Village. For further information on these accommodations: http://www.clarkson.edu/residencelife/halls/halls.html
F. Visa
Consular/Visa Regulation	All students are advised to apply for the necessary visa immediately after they receive the official offer letter/email from their host university.

	Some visa application processes can take up to 2 months to process. Your exchange at the host university depends on the clearance by the immigration of the host country. International students who are accepted to Clarkson University on exchange programme must obtain a J-1 visa. To obtain a visa, you must submit an application and supporting documents with your passport to the U.S. Consul or Embassy that has jurisdiction over the place where you live. Once you receive your I-20 (F-1 Student) or DS-2019 (J-1 student or exchange visitor) you will then need to pay the SEVIS fee before you schedule your interview. Currently the fee is US$200 (subject to change) for F1 students and US$180 (subject to change) for J1 students and the SEVIS fee can be paid online, via western union or by mail. For further information, please visit http://www.clarkson.edu/isso/students_scholars/visa_info.html
G. Safety, Health & Medical Insurance
i) Health/Medical Insurance	All registered NUS students are covered under the University health insurance and the blanket travel insurance. For more information on the University health insurance coverage, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/uhc/healthservice/insurance-schemes/undergraduate-scheme.html. For more information on the blanket travel insurance, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/finance/InsuranceCoverforOfficialNUSTrips.html Faculty and Scholars in J-1 status are required to have medical insurance in effect which covers yourself and any dependents in J-visa status for sickness or accident during the duration of your program. Clarkson University has information on available insurance plans that meet the US federal government requirements and can assist you and your advisor with the completion of the application documents. You may also make your own arrangements; however, you must complete the Insurance Waiver form and provide the ISSO with the referenced information for your file. Students are also expected to provide a medical report. For further information please visit here.
