ix) Module restrictions and pre-requisites	NUS students cannot read courses in the Business School, Law School and courses at School of Medicine. Students on exchange may register only for courses that are not filled by degree candidates. Students should have alternate course selection possibilities in case degree candidates fill a specific class. Students are to note that there may be prerequisites for select courses. Please check course prerequisites before applying. Emory require NUS applicants to have completed at least three semesters at their home university upon application for the Exchange Programme to Emory; and at least two years of study at NUS upon admission to Emory.
D. Application
i) Procedures	All NUS students have to be nominated by NUS before they can apply for a fee-waiver exchange at the host university. The application procedures and list of supporting documents needed by the host university can be found in the SharePoint. Please look for the SEP coordinator at your Dean's Office for the link to the SharePoint.
ii) Deadlines	All NUS students must abide by the internal application deadline set by their home Faculty for exchange participation in the following academic year. After clearing the internal application and selection process, students have to take note of the application deadline set by the host university. Failure to submit a formal application to the host university by the stipulated deadline, may result in your exchange being forfeited even if you have been selected by NUS for the exchange.
E. Accommodation
i) University Accommodation	Housing Options On campus: Exchange students will be housed in university housing, www.emory.edu/housing. Everyone has to complete an on-line application. You can access the application by going to the housing website - www.emory.edu/housing - and clicking on Apply for Undergraduate

	Housing. You can then log in and complete the application. You will be sent the log in information in an email after you have been admitted.
F. Visa
Consular/Visa Regulation	Once you have been approved to study in the United States and officially admitted to Emory University, you will receive your Certificate of Eligibility (DS-2019). Your Certificate of Eligibility is valid for 30 days before and 30 days after your academic program. This means that if you so desire, you can arrive in the United States one month before Emory's semester begins and depart for your home country one month after the semester ends. After paying the SEVIS fee, take the SEVIS receipt, the Form DS-2019, valid passport, and evidence of financial support to the nearest U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate to obtain your J-1 exchange visitor visa. When you depart for the U.S. be sure to carry these documents with you. You should also carry original financial documents as proof to support the funding listed on your Form DS-2019. A United States immigration officer will review these items at your U.S. city of arrival. For very important information about entering the United States as an F-1 or J-1 student, please visit the following government website, www.ice.gov/sevis/students/index.htm.
G. Safety, Health & Medical Insurance
i) Health/Medical Insurance	All registered NUS students are covered under the University health insurance and the blanket travel insurance. For more information on the University health insurance coverage, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/uhc/healthservice/insurance-schemes/undergraduate-scheme.html. For more information on the blanket travel insurance, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/finance/InsuranceCoverforOfficialNUSTrips.html The cost of quality medical care in the United States is very expensive. Without medical insurance the cost of treatment for an illness or an injury resulting from an accident can be devastating. Indeed, receiving treatment is difficult if you do not have health insurance. Medical insurance is mandatory for ALL students at Emory University. Students must either purchase the Emory University Student Health Insurance Plan (offered by Aetna Student Health) or provide documentation of enrolment in a comparable United States-domiciled health insurance plan (a plan through a US company).

	Please visit the Student Health Services website for more details regarding the student health insurance requirements.
