ix) Module restrictions and pre-requisites	Restrictions for Exchange Students For more information about the application process visit http://studyabroad.washington.edu/?go=VisitingStudents Please advise your students that access to courses in Accounting, Architecture, Art, Communications, Computer Science, Economics, Engineering, Finance, Psychology, Sociology, and Law, Society, & Justice are extremely competitive and is therefore restricted to undergraduate exchange students. As a result, students may be limited to courses outside these majors due to enrollment constraints. Courses in Architecture, Education, Law and Health Sciences are generally available to graduate students only. Professional programs including Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, and Pharmacy as well as many studio classes are not open to exchange students.
D. Application
i) Procedures	All NUS students have to be nominated by NUS before they can apply for a fee-waiver exchange at the host university. The application procedures and list of supporting documents needed by the host university can be found in the SharePoint. Please look for the SEP coordinator at your Dean's Office for the link to the SharePoint.
ii) Deadlines	All NUS students must abide by the internal application deadline set by their home Faculty for exchange participation in the following academic year. After clearing the internal application and selection process, students have to take note of the application deadline set by the host university. Failure to submit a formal application to the host university by the stipulated deadline, may result in your exchange being forfeited even if you have been selected by NUS for the exchange.
E. Accommodation
i) University Accommodation	Housing Options On-Campus: Students can flexibly choose among three types of on-campus housing: Residence Halls: Single student housing, furnished but do not provide bedding or linen Commodore Duchess Apartments: Studio and 1 bedroom apartments, completely unfurnished.

	Family Housing: 1, 2 or 3 bedroom apartments, completely unfurnished. Radford Court: Unfurnished apartments located three miles northeast of UW are available for single students, couples, and families. Students must indicate their interest in living on campus at the time of application. Once, admitted, students must apply by the stated deadline: http://hfs.washington.edu Off-campus: There are many apartments and shared houses available in the area surrounding the University of Washington. Housing can generally be divided into two categories: Shared and Non-shared. Non-Shared might include a one bedroom or a studio (one large room with a separate bathroom) apartment. Shared housing might be a room in a house or part of an apartment where you would share things like the kitchen and bathroom. Some studios in the lower price ranges may have shared bathrooms on the same floor. Information on off-campus housing can be obtained from the Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW) and the Off-Campus Housing Affairs (OCHA) Office at http://housing.asuw.org/. Other local resources for finding housing include: The Seattle Times (http://marketplace.nwsourc.com/classified/rent/) and The Seattle Post-Intelligencer Classifieds sections (http://marketplace.nwsourc.com/rentals/) are a good resource. Listed by neighborhood, they come out each day. The early Sunday edition available on Saturday is your best resource with the latest listings. Renttech.com is a paid service that offers hundreds of easily searchable listings for housing. You can designate you price range and type of housing, and Renttech.com will email you listings as they become available.

Consular/Visa Regulation	Consular/Visa Regulation Visa required, information on how to obtain visa will be sent with acceptance package to selected students. http://iss.washington.edu/travel-visas
G. Safety, Health & Medical Insurance

i) Health/Medical Insurance	All registered NUS students are covered under the University health insurance and the blanket travel insurance. For more information on the University health insurance coverage, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/uhc/healthservice/insurance-schemes/undergraduate-scheme.html. For more information on the blanket travel insurance, please refer to http://www.nus.edu.sg/finance/InsuranceCoverforOfficialNUSTrips.html All students who attend US universities on exchange are required to purchase the health insurance recommended by their host university as part of the registration process. In addition, they can also purchase additional optional insurance from a private insurer for their term of study overseas. These short term optional insurance plans cover events such as personal accident, accidental medical expenses, emergency medical evacuation etc. As an exchange student, you are eligible to apply for an insurance waiver if you have comparable insurance that is valid in the US. Please note that you will still need to select UW Accident and Sickness Insurance when you first register. Once your waiver has been approved, then the ISO will remove the insurance charge from your account. For more information please go to http://iss.washington.edu/health-insurance#toc2 and select "Insurance Waiver." Submission of Measles Immunization is required.
