ix) Module restrictions and pre-requisites	Restrictions for Exchange Students Courses from the Mendoza College of Business or the School of Architecture are currently closed to exchange students. Graduate level programs are also closed to exchange students. Note that Law is considered a graduate program at ND and is consequently closed to exchange students. Some courses in Arts & Letters, Engineering, and Science may be full at the time of exchange student registration. Every effort will be made to accommodate the course requests of exchange students, but placement into any course at ND cannot be guaranteed and may depend on space availability, course pre-requisites, etc. As of October 2014, University of Notre Dame have advised partner universities are to discourage exchange applications to University of Notre Dame within the engineering disciplines of Computer Science Engineering (CSE) and Aero/Mechanical Engineering (AME). The remaining disciplines in Engineering (electrical, chemical, etc.) can remain as open and available, but University of Notre Dame classes in Computer Science Engineering and Aero/Mechanical Engineering are no longer open to exchange students. Students must be nominated from their home institution and must complete an application, 2 faculty letters of reference, a personal record form, and a certification of finances form.
D. Application
i) Procedures	All NUS students have to be nominated by NUS before they can apply for a fee-waiver exchange at the host university. The application procedures and list of supporting documents needed by the host university can be found in the SharePoint. Please look for the SEP coordinator at your Dean's Office for the link to the SharePoint.
ii) Deadlines	All NUS students must abide by the internal application deadline set by their home Faculty for exchange participation in the following academic year. After clearing the internal application and selection process, students have to take note of the application deadline set by the host university. Failure to submit a formal application to the host university by the stipulated deadline, may result in your exchange being forfeited even if you have been selected by NUS for the exchange.
